

Our Cookie Statement

We use cookies which are tiny files that we store on your computer. They help us identify you from other users and allow us to give you the best experience when you visit our website.

Types of Cookies

To help you understand more about our cookies, we have divided our cookies into four categories based on the guidance on the International Chamber of Commerce.

- Strictly Necessary Cookies - These cookies are essential in order to enable you to move around the website and use its features, such as accessing secure areas of the website. For example, authentication and security cookies are used to identify and recognize registered users and to enable them to gain access to requested content or features. Without these cookies, services you have asked for cannot be provided.
- Analytical Cookies - These cookies allow us to monitor the behavioral activity of our users. They don't collect any personal information about you. We use these cookies to help us improve the way our website works for you. Types of information they collect include, for example, how many visitors to the website or which pages they had come from previously.
- Functionality Cookies - These cookies allow our websites to remember the choices you make and your account preferences and to provide enhanced, more personal features. For example, these cookies will remember your log-in details.
- Targeting Cookies - These cookies record your visit to the website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make the website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.
